

Research Funding Travel Application

Student's name:

Location of proposed travel (city, country, specific site):

Proposed dates of travel:

Other source(s) from which you are seeking travel funding:

Briefly explain the research you plan to conduct:

Advanced PhD candidates please briefly explain the relation between that research and your dissertation project as a whole. For those conducting pre-dissertation research, please briefly explain how the proposed travel will contribute to the development of your project.

Have you previously received research travel funds from the department? If yes, please list funding amounts and briefly describe the outcome of that travel.